It is hoped to publish the following papers in a forthcoming issue of the Journal:

Stone, G. M., Baggett, B. & Donnelly, R. B. The uptake of tritiated oestrogens by various organs of the ovariectomized mouse following intravenous administration.

Stone, G. M. The uptake of tritiated oestrogens by various organs of the ovariectomized mouse following subcutaneous administration.

Foster, C. L. Post-coital cytological changes in the adenohypophysis of the non-parous rabbit.

Cooke, Alma M., Rogers, A. W. & Thomas, G. H. The urinary metabolites of progesterone labelled with tritium and carbon-14 in the rabbit.

Short, R. V., Shorter, D. R. & Linzell, J. L. Granulosa cell tumour of the ovary in a virgin heifer.

Fuchs, F., Fuchs, Anna-Riitta & Short R. V. Progesterone in the uterine venous blood of women during the first half of gestation.

Psychoyos, A. A study of the hormonal requirements for ovum implantation in the rat, by means of delayed nidation-inducing substances (chlorpromazine, trifluoperazine).

Short Communications

De Moor, P., Deckx, R. & Steeno, O. Influence of various steroids on the specific binding of cortisol.